

PREPLY COOKIES POLICY

Last amended: May 24, 2018

We would like you to know more about our use of cookies. That is why this document was drafted. It explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

This Cookies Policy is a part of our Terms of Service and Privacy Policy, together with your consents comprising our agreement with you.

Preply does use cookies

Pursuant to Section 3 of our Privacy Policy, Preply ("us", "we", or "our") use cookies and other technologies on the <http://www.preply.com> website and the Preply mobile application (the "Services"). By using the Services and clicking the respective buttons on our banners, you consent to the use of cookies for the purposes we describe in this policy.

Cookies are...

Those small files comprising bits of text are installed on your computer or mobile device each time you open the respective Service. They enable our server to provide you with the information that is customized with your needs when you use some service for the next time. Usually your browser tells our systems if any cookies files were installed in your computer and as a result, we may analyze the information the cookies files give us.

Kinds of cookies and purposes Preply uses them

Preply uses the cookies for the following purposes when entering the Service:

- to enhance your user experience: it enables Preply to keep you sign in if you wish, so there is no need for you to reenter the sign in information each time you come to Preply Services;
- to enable us to see your actions and preferences on the Services, analyze this information and provide you more relevant information on the Services you are currently using or may use;
- to enable the behavioral advertising: if you searched something or someone on our Services some time ago, the cookies remembered that and would remind you on your related needs later.

More specifically, here are the categories of cookies and description of their nature and purposes:

Categories of Use	Description
Authentication	If you're signed in to Preply, cookies help us to customize and enhance your experience on our Services.
Preferences, features and services	Cookies can tell us which language you prefer and what your communications preferences are.

Performance, Analytics and Research

Cookies help us learn how well our site and plugins perform in different locations. We also use cookies to understand, improve, and research products, features, and services.

Advertising

Preply may use cookies in order to provide you with more relevant advertising when you use the Services. Cookies will enable us to know more about your prior visits on Preply and your activity within Preply, including the date and time of visits, time spent on the Website as well as the pages viewed and websites previously visited. Preply may process such data through the external services, including but not limited to Adwords.

Further opting-out from the use of cookies

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser as specified below (separate support pages for each browser).

Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer, you may not be able to store your preferences, and some of our pages might not display properly, since the Services will no longer be personalized to you. It may also stop you from saving customized settings.

If you use Preply without changing your browser settings, we'll assume that you're happy to receive all cookies within our Services.
